1. It was reported that during the month of May the Communists in Ponta Grossa were agitating among the workers of the Companhia de Força e Luz (power company) for a strike. The Party was also active along the same lines in Curitiba.
2. There has been a considerable movement of Communist Party members between Rio Grande do Sul and Parana since the first of April. From time to time unidentified men have arrived in Ponta Grossa and conferred with known Communists, during which time the Party has been active in agitating for strikes in public utilities.
